OPENS A TERRIFIC FIGHT

Crisis May Last Well Into Next Week Before New French Government is Formed

By C. F. BERTELLI.

Staff Correspondent Universal Service
PARIS, April 10 (11:30 p. m.)— Premier Herriot's resignation given to President Domergue tonight following the overthrow of the Government by the Senate means:

1. All fiscal projects will be indefinitely postponed.
2. The opening of a terrific fight between the Radical Chamber of Deputies and the reactionary Senate.
3. The likelihood of a crisis lasting well into next week before a new Government is formed.

The candidates for the Premiership in the apparent order of their chances late tonight are President of the Senate Paul Painleve, Aristide
Briand, Louis Loucheur, Finance Minister de Monzie and M. Franklin-Bouillon. It is understood that Herriot tonight counseled President Domergue to ask that Painleve be formed a Ministry, but it is reported that Painleve has already signified
his intention to refuse.

FACES OLD ENEMY.
A feature of the situation is the fact that the Herriot Government was overthrown by the Premier's old enemy, M. Poincare, whose violent speech in the Senate this afternoon won out over Herriot's carefully prepared peroration.

It is a certainty that whatever Government is chosen must adopt a policy of inflation in some degree.
The Herriot Government, repudiated by the French Senate this afternoon by a vote of 156 to 132, tendered their resignations to President
Domergue at 10 o'clock this evening.

The definite refusal of the Senate to give Premier Herriot and his Ministers a vote of confidence, thus splitting the French parliament, inasmuch as the Chamber of Deputies yesterday expressed its confidence in the Government by a substantial though reduced majority, has created an involved situation.

The deadlock of the Senate and Chamber may force President Dom-ergue to dissolve the Chamber and call new elections, as may easily become possible for any Government to win a favorable vote in the lower body.

Immediately after the vote was taken showing the Senate refused to sanction the general policy of the Government, the Cabinet held a meeting in the Foreign Office for the purpose of drawing up the letter of resignation.

Local Girls Win Fame In Theatre

Ennice Healey and Margaret Mc-Neill, two little Richmond girls, are rapidly becoming famous with their acrobatic numbers on the stage. They are featured this week at the Granada theatre in San Francisco with Leona Saunders.

The trick they are doing includes different acrobatic numbers and a twisting flip-flop, nip up, and these performers are said to be the only children on the American stage doing the feat.

William O'Rourke of San Francisco is the instructor of the tots.

NO REDUCTION IN TOWNSHIPS

Through the efforts of Assemblyman Robert P. Easley, the proposed reduction of Contra Costa county townships from 17 to 5 has been eliminated from the county government bill before the State legislature at Sacramento, and no reductions will be made.

Commenting on this situation, Assemblyman Easley yesterday addressed this paper as follows:

Sacramento, California,
April 9, 1925

RECORD HERALD,
Richmond, California.

In answer to the many letters,
telegrams and petitions incorporating thousands of names, it is my desire, if it becomes your pleasure, to use your paper as a medium to convey to the people of Contra Costa County, the following:

Upon receipt of your County Government from the Grand Jury
of our County, it was in the opinion of the writer, a mistake to eliminate twelve Constable and Judgeship Districts, or in other words, to cut down the districts from seventeen to five. I therefore notified the members of the Grand Jury of my objection and found some of them already opposed to the measure, and at a special meeting held at Martinez on April 7, it was decided by the Grand Jury as a body, that the objectionable features should at this time be eliminated.

It becomes the pleasure of the writer to inform you that the County Government Bill will go through in its original form and that the Township District will remain as in the past.

Very respectfully yours,
ROBERT P. EASLEY

Building Permits Issued Yesterday

Robert R. Zumwalt was issued a permit yesterday by Building Inspector E. E. Grow to build a one-story frame dwelling on Twenty-fourth street, between Macdonald and Nevin avenues. The cost of construction will be $2600 and the contractor will be J. Fagerstrom.

A permit was also taken out by Carl N. Beck to construct private garage on Florida street, between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets, to cost $150. Mrs. M. Grasso will erect a frame garage on Tewks-bury, near Eddy street at a cost of $50.

NATATORIUM WORK STARTS

Actual work on the construction of Richmond's municipal natatorium which is to be the finest and most attractive public bath house in the country, will get under way early Monday morning, according to an announcement made yesterday by City Engineer E. A. Hoffman.

First work to be done will be the excavations for the great swimming pool, which will be started Monday morning by a thirty-two ton steam shovel, operated by the Baker Company, which has a sub-contract for the excavation on the site of the bath house.

Following as quickly as possible
after the start of the excavation work, other contracts will be commenced and in a short time a large number of men will be employed, carrying the big natatorium to completion with rapid progress.

Plans for the Richmond municipal natatorium have won wide attention and it has been accepted as a model by the state board of health. It was designed by local architects, James T. Norton and his associates. It will be located near the municipal tunnel on the west side.

Special Train To Carry Visitors To Livermore Today

A special train, chartered by the American Legion post at Livermore, will leave First street and Broadway Oakland at 9:30 o'clock this morning, taking all Richmond people who desire to go to the formal dedication of the new hospital for tubercular war veterans, just completed
by the United States Veterans Bureau at Livermore. It is hoped that enough passengers will be obtained to justify the chartering of the train.

The passengers will be transported from the train to the hospital by special busses.

The American Legion auxiliary will serve luncheon to all visitors at the hospital, and a splendid program has been arranged for the day. The dedication will be attended by the Elks of the East Bay.

Pre-School Day Health Survey In Richmond Is April Program

All child welfare agencies in Richmond are organized for a pre-school survey during the last two weeks of April.

In connection with this program
the Richmond school department has secured Dr. Guy Millberry of the University of California to address
the parents of Richmond's children on the subject of most vital importance to the welfare of any individual HEALTH.

Physical fitness is of prime importance if he is to be able to carry the loads that are to be placed upon him. He must reflect the full physical vigor which is to be expected of him as an adult. His eyes, ears and teeth must be in good condition. He must be physically able as well as mentally able to take his place in the conduct of future affairs of life.

Now is the most important time of his life and the assurance of his physical preparation to enter school constitutes the most important duty
of his parents.

Dr. Millberry has been addressing groups of parents in the Bay Cities
upon this matter of "Child Health" and the message he has to bring to any one interested in the subject is of great value.

The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Richmond school department, Richmond Health Center and the Parent-Teachers associations of Richmond on Tuesday, April 14th at 2:00 p. m. at the Lincoln auditorium.

LEGION PLANS MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM HERE

The membership contest of the American Legion which closed Thursday night resulted in bringing 27 new members in the post and the re-instatement of 20 more. The institution of these members will be held in conjunction with a banquet and entertainment on Thursday evening, April 23. J. H. Fitzpatrick heads the team that is to put on the supper as W. A. Vickery's team defeated them in the contest.

The legion, through a committee composed of Charles W. St. John, J. H. Fitzpatrick and J. E. Hill, has requested the ministers of Richmond to preach sermons "For God and Country" on Americanization day, W. C. Dobler of the Legion is the general chairman of the committee named by the Allied War Veterans council to direct the ceremonies in connection with observance of Memorial Day, May 30. D. Brady and William Oakley were selected by the Legion to serve on the committee and two will be named by the United Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The sale of poppies by the Legion auxiliary on that day was sponsored by the Legion.

Ten dollars worth of tickets to the P. T. A. Federation scholarship fund show at the Richmond theatre were taken by the Legion.

It is expected that action will be taken by the Legion on the complaint that discrimination is being shown in awarding farm and home loans,
when the Contra Costa County Council meets on April 16.

Richmond post will be well represented at the district meeting of the Legion at Crockett next Saturday night, at which a program of action will be outlined by Department Commander Nathan Coombs.

FORMER RULER CALLS HIMSELF 'HIS MAJESTY'

Asked if Field Marshal Von Hindenburg Plans to Restore Him-
Ex-Emperor Says 'No'

STILL INSISTS ON TITLE

Hindenburg Reported to Have Sought His Approval Before
Accepting Nomination

(By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, April 10.—Universal Service through George Sylvester Viereck, cabled to the former Emperor of Germany, asking him whether it was true that Field Marshal von Hindenburg had accepted the nomination for the German Presidency, at the former Kaiser's request.
Universal Service, in the message,
also stated that the reports from Germany was true that Admiral Von Tirpitz, sent to Doorn by the German Nationalists urged the former Kaiser to acquiesce in Von Hinden-burg's candidacy, "as a sure move toward the restoration of the Hohenzollern rule."

The former Kaiser replied by cable as follows:

DOORN, April 10, 1925.

Mr. George Sylvester Viereck, No.
93 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

Telegram received. Story absolute fiction. His majesty had no communication whatever from Field Marshal Hindenburg respecting his candidacy. No messages were received in Doorn.

ALWAYS 'HIS MAJESTY'

His majesty's information about Presidential campaign in Germany solely derived from German and foreign press. His majesty in no communication with anybody belonging to the actual political circles in Germany or with party leaders.

His majesty once and for all has made it his principle not to interfere in internal affairs in Germany
as long as he resides in Doorn.

By his imperial majesty's orders,
Colonel V. Kleist.

Acting Chief of Household.

Universal Service's cable to the former Kaiser, sent through George Sylvester Viereck, who was a guest at the ex-emperor's wedding, follows:

April 9, 1925.

His Majesty, the Emperor and King.

Doorn, Holland.

Newspapers here print scare lines,
based on alleged information from Germany stating Hindenburg accepted the nomination for the Presidency
by an imperial majesty's command.
Dispatches state:

"Hindenburg declared that the condition on which he would accept nomination would be the approval of former Kaiser, whom he termed the supreme master of the land, and whose representative he said he would regard himself if elected."

ADVISES HINDENBURG

At the Nationalists' request the field marshal addressed a letter to the former Kaiser, which was taken to Doorn by a messenger. The reply was affirmative, provided there was a chance of Hindenburg's election.

"Then the Nationalists sent one of their most prominent members, Admiral Tirpitz, to Doorn. He outlined the political situation and sought to impress the former Kaiser with the necessity of his final acquiescence to Hindenburg's candidacy as a sure move towards restoration of the Hohenzollern rule."

"Does your majesty care to deny
the story or make any statement, whatever to enlighten American opinion? Please reply by cable. Five hundred word answer, prepaid."

"Viereck, New York."

Easter Sunday To Be Observed By Program At Local Churches

Easter programs are being arranged at the various churches of Richmond for special observance service Sunday.

Probably the most pretentious observing of the day will be the Easter pageant, "The Dawning," to be presented at the Wesley Methodist church, Sunday evening at 7:30 by a cast of forty local people. This pageant is being directed by W. J.
Osborne, assisted by Mrs. C. G. Lin-demann and will depict the days of the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ. It will be given entirely in costume of the early days of Christianity.

At the First Methodist church, W.
P. Grant, pastor, members of Miramir chapter, No. 295, Order of Eastern Star, will be guests of the day at the morning service by special invitation. Invitations have also been extended to the McKinley lodge and all other chapters and lodges of the Masonic order.

PROGRAMS BY RADIO

Evening devotional services, usually held at 7:30 at the First Methodist church, have been dismissed and members are advised to attend other religious services at their pleasure.
For the benefit of those who prefer to attend their own "Little Brick Church on the Corner" the pastor will tune in with the radio to evening musical programs of East Bay churches, and it is also anticipated that President Coolidge's Easter message from Washington, D. C. will be heard.

The doors of this church, like the doors of the Kingdom, are never closed, either day or night.

During the morning service at the First Methodist church, the Rev.
Grant will deliver a sermon on the subject of "Immortality." Considered "Outside of the Bible," and a special program will be given, as follows:

Congregational hymns.

"Behold the Glories of the Lamb,"

William Schrubsole.

"Christ the Lord is Risen Today,"

Lyra Davidica.

Anthems.

"Ride on in Majesty," W. Barnes.

son.

"Thou Shalt be Saved," Parkman.

ESCAPES FROM SAN QUENTIN NEAR CAPTURE

Desperate Men Who Scaled Prison
Walls Believed Surrounded
Near Petaluma

RESIDENTS ARM THEMSELVES

Fear the Escapes Might Attempt Violence to Citizens in Order to Escape

As a posse from San Quentin and police officers prepared to close in on Floyd Hall and Joe Tanko who are thought to be hiding in swampy ground near Petaluma, residents of that section were warned to arm themselves for protection.

Both fugitives, who climbed over a 25 foot wall at the prison Tuesday night and fled, are life termers convicted for slaying Chief of Police Arthur G. Meehan of San Bruno.
Both are said to be desperate characters and might attempt violence to residents in order to make this escape.

Captain E. J. Hobbs commanding
the San Quentin guards, with four marshals yesterday morning rushed to Petaluma when it was reported by Richard Smith Jr., a resident, that he had seen the two convicts. The tender of the bridge crossing Petaluma slough also reported having seen two men answering their description hurriedly
crossing the structure.

It was at first thought the two men were surrounded in a field of long tule grass. It was found however that they had probably escaped.

Hobbs was offered the entire force of the Petaluma Police department and the county sheriff sent several deputies to join the hunt. A larger cordon was thrown out and it is believed that both are certain of recapture, according to Warden Frank Smith.

which to select a jury to try the case:

ert G. Lee, Mattie A. Chandler,
Mary T. Wiget, Manuel J. Duarte, Jr., Clinton T. Richey, Peter Anderson, Richard R. Rowell, Mary E.

EASTER LILIES DISPLAYED

In keeping with the Easter time, Adolph Winter has taken in a large stock of the most wonderful Easter Lilies at his flower store on Macdonald avenue at Eleventh street.
The flowers are attractively displayed in the most enticing way so that they show up the same as they would appear in the home on Easter Sunday morning.

SPEEDERS PAY FINES

J. K. Brandenburg, Oakland, and H. Rose, of Berkeley, were assessed fines of $25 and $15 respectively in the court of Police Judge C. A.
Odell yesterday on charges of speeding.

WISDOM FROM NURMI

Nurmi, the great Finish runner, has been much interviewed since he came to America. Most of the interviews, as is usual where sporting celebrities are concerned, either flattered the subject or arrived nowhere. But an interview in the Pittsburgh Post (by a music critic) sounds like truth, and means something.

"Is it true that you speedy Finns eat nothing but black bread?" Nurmi was asked.

"Jah? Not," was the reply.

"Well, did they train you on nothing but dried fish?"

"Jah? Not."

"Well, then, how do you train?"

"Jah? I yust run, an' then some more run."

"Do you prefer cinder paths or broad paths, indoor or out door?"

"Jah? Yust run. No diff'rence."

"But how do you manage to win all your races?"

"Jah? Yust by running. Fellows behind crowd me, so I have to win to keep in front."

"Tell us something we can write for the kids to read, something to encourage them."

"Jah? Yust run. Run to beat. Run to hurry 'em. Yust run."

All of which hereby passed along for the benefit of ambitious kids and misquoting sport editors.

DREAM SHIPS AGROUND

"In all this pother about the Government operating Muscle Shoals, why has none of its advocates referred to our wonderful operation of the shipping business?"

It is the editor of "The Nation's Business" who asks the question. He recalls a wave of enthusiasm that expressed itself about like this:

"The greatest merchant marine the world has ever seen! Two thousand ships! Run up the flag and hurrah!"

And then he goes on:

"But where are they? Seventeen hundred of them are rotting and rusting in Chesapeake Bay and the Hudson river, and I saw long strings of them last week in Puget Sound and in the Bay district around San Francisco. An investment of three billion dollars—real, honest, hard, round, iron dollars—as we shall learn when we come to pay the bill."

Just now, says the editor, the deficit on that wonderful Government-owned fleet is taxing the American people an additional $50,000,000 a year.

DECALOGUE FOR PARENTS

Since this is the age of new decalogues, for all sorts of persons and situations, it is fitting to have one for parental treatment of children. Here it is, abridged from commandments found in a bulletin of the Children's Bureau, written by Dr. Thom, director of the Boston Habit Clinic for Children.

Don't worry too much about them.

Don't baby them.

Don't give them everything they ask for.

Don't bribe them.

Don't cheat them.

Don't threaten unless you mean it.

Don't talk about or laugh at them in their presence.

Don't be cold and repelling.

Don't be discourteous to them.

Don't disagree over discipline before them.

It may be objected that these commandments are negative, and some of them overlap each other. Perhaps they could be put positively and briefly as follows: Love your children; respect them; be square with them; be friends with them.

AMOUNT OF RAINFALL ASSURES GOOD CROPS AND BUSY SHOPS

Northern California may look confidently forward to a prosperous year. Enough rain has fallen to make certain that there will be no repetition of the water shortage of 1924. There have been wetter winters than the one just past, but it was far more generous than its predecessor, in fact so much more generous that the difference will mean many millions of dollars to the farmers of the great interior and coast valleys.

An abundance of water for irrigating orchards is assured, there will be plenty of water to keep hydro-electric power plants running at capacity, and out of this conjunction of favorable conditions will come greater cities, more factories, more farms and more comforts to those who raise food for city folk.

There's no accounting for taste, and it is merely set down as a sidelight on contemporary manners and morals that a whole lot of the Americans insist on heroizing a young man who wins a fortune in speculation and spends it in making a fool of himself.

The Bolero, Recently Revived, Offers Opportunity for New Silhouette.

THE bolero, which has been revived in the spring fashions, might be enumerated among the styles that lead away from the perfectly straight up-and-down silhouette. And it was doubtless as a means of suggesting a waistline in a subtle manner that the French dressmakers turned to the bolero. Certainly it was not through any direct application of the Spanish mode. Frequently, lately, the French dressmakers have tried to impress upon the pages of fashion a definite Spanish vogue, but with the exception of the fad for the Spanish shawl and the Spanish comb, none of the Spanish tendencies have met with much enthusiasm. The milliners tried very hard to popularize various Spanish shapes but without marked success.

Patou is given credit for the introduction of the bolero, but the idea has not been ignored by the other dressmakers. Always they seem to accompany it with a fairly full skirt. Not only does Patou make frocks of this description but makes use of the idea with coats. One clever coat of his has a circular skirt edged with a wide band of fox. The bolero is shown in the back only. Not at all new is the introduction of the bolero at the front and not at the back.

The sketch shows the carrying out of the bolero idea in an evening frock. The foundation is of mauve chiffon with circular lace flounce and lace bolero. The waist is outlined by ribbon, just a little above the hips.

An American dressmaking establishment has been successful in models showing black satin frocks accompanied by brightly colored Spanish sash, placed between hips and waist, giving the characteristic Spanish moulded line to both hips and waist.

Sometimes, as in the model shown in the sketch, the bolero accompanies a skirt with fullness introduced by way of a flare. Again the fullness is gradually introduced, by means of circular treatment or godets, from the hips to the hem.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

NEGLECTED FISH

ATTENTION in Paris was recently drawn to the fact that the amount of fish consumed is considerably less than it used to be. Since the war seemingly there has been less demand for fish. There are many, many households in this country where the same thing is true. Possibly the fact that more women do their own cooking and housework and that there are fewer servants now than formerly has something to do with it. Ask any woman who does her own work whether she has fish often and the chances are that she will tell you that she doesn't have it often, and that the reason she doesn't is because she doesn't like the smell of the fish things.

But it is a well-known fact that fresh fish is wholesome. It has become a tradition in England that in fishing towns where practically no animal food save fish is eaten, the people are hale and hearty. Recent scientific investigations are showing that fish contains ingredients very beneficial to the human organism. We really ought to eat more of it. The seas and the lakes and the rivers are full of fish and we ought to make the most of them.

WHERE IT STARTED

TEN

In inventing words for numbers, the early Saxons could devise only nine original words. The numerals from 1 to 9 are not derived from other roots, but are root-words in themselves. "Ten," however, comes from the Saxon Tynan, to shut or close, meaning that after counting on the fingers, turning one after another in at ten all were turned in and the hands were "Tynan," closed.

My Matrimonial Vacation

by VIOLET DARE

AUTHOR OF "The Half-Time Wife," "The Husband Tamer," "One Wife on Approval," etc.

WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S HAPPENED

NANCY LARRABEE has remained in New York with her mother. VIRGINIA, while her husband, a young army officer, JIM LARRABEE, goes to the Philippines. They become estranged and she writes him that she wants to divorce him and marry Bill Ewing; she received a cablegram saying that Jim has died at sea, and realizes that it is Jim she loves.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT

XLIII—A BOLT FROM THE BLUE

"MEET me at the Grand Central station at four-thirty Thursday."

I read that cablegram over and over. "A. L." I studied the initials that were signed to it. Of course it must be one of my husband's brother officers, who had returned from the Philippines on the transport with him. I tried to remember the names of all Jim's friends at West Point, but I couldn't think of any whose initials were "A. L."

"Oh, that doesn't matter," I cried at last, throwing myself down on the chaise longue in my room. I thought the hours would never pass. I didn't know what in the world I'd do with myself until half-past four the next afternoon.

It seemed an eternity.

I thought back over all of my life since I'd first met Jim at West Point and fallen in love with him. It was a series of memories that I loved, until I came to the moment when I had come suddenly into the house and found Celia Eaton in his arms.

And yet—perhaps if I had asked him about that incident, he could have explained it satisfactorily. Celia was a flirt, and she'd known Jim a long time, longer than I had, and been in love with him a year or so before.

Maybe if I hadn't been so dreadfully hurt—maybe if I'd understood Jim better—there were a dozen "maybes" that came crowding into my mind.

But now it was too late. Jim was dead. He never could explain now. And even if he'd been alive, I'd sent him word that I wanted a divorce, because I cared more for another man than I did for him. Jim was frightfully proud; he'd never forgive that.

Virginia hustled in and out, busy with her preparations to marry Dad all over again. I wondered if I was as flighty as she was, as incapable of any real, deep affection.

Bill Ewing sent me some gorgeous roses, but did not enclose a note. Evidently he thought I meant it when I said that I didn't want to see him again!

I couldn't sleep that night. I stood at the window, staring down into the street, watching taxis go rushing by, and wondering how quickly slip past the hotel and trying not to wonder what was going to happen to me.

A big dance was being given in one of the hotel ballrooms; the music came floating up to me, wonderful jazz. I shuddered at the thought of ever dancing again. I felt that life could hold no more gaiety for me.

I went back to the chaise longue, and studied the classified ads in an evening newspaper. There didn't seem to be any kind of work for which I was fitted or educated, but I clipped out the notices that had been inserted by several agencies, and decided to visit them and register in the morning. Somebody might want a companion, or a governess. I told myself, not realizing that a governess has to be specially trained in these days.

Virginia sauntered in at half-past two, to tell me about the theater and supper party she and Dad had just given.

"I wish you wouldn't sit moping there," she exclaimed. "It isn't good for you; you'll ruin your looks. Why you act so I can't see. You never cared for Jim, or you'd have gone to the tropics with him."

"You insisted that I mustn't go," I reminded her.

"Oh well, if you'd really loved him you'd have gone with him in spite of anything that I could say," she answered. "Of course, now that he's dead you think you care for him, but you don't, really. You don't know your own mind."

"Perhaps not, but I know my own heart," I told her.

She went away then, and I undressed and went to bed, to lie there tossing restlessly until it was morning and I could get up again.

"Narrow Street" Is Enjoyable Picture At The California

In "The Narrow Street, which opened at the California theatre yesterday for a two day run, a very entertaining picture is offered for public consumption, one that will leave the audience with the pleasant conviction of having thoroughly enjoyed itself.

"The Narrow Street" is the motion picture version of the best seller by Edwin Belaman Morris, whose delightful story of mystery and love, has been translated to the screen by Warren Bros. with excellent results.

The fun starts right at the beginning of the picture, when Dorothy Devore, who plays the part of Doris, eludes her pursuers and gains refuge in a strange bachelor quarters with swarming bravado she makes herself so completely at home that Simon Haldane, characterized by Matt Moore, finds himself her husband in the eyes of the world. The bewildered state is so effectively portrayed that each incident becomes more hilarious, until he discovers that he loves this mysterious girl, who has died of her home as mysteriously as she came.

Both Matt Moore and Dorothy Devore give excellent performances, ably supported by David Butler, Russell Simon, George Pearce, Gertrude Smith, Temple Pigott, Kate Tegeray and a few others.

Other features on the same program include "The Lion's Whiskers," a Mack Sennett comedy; "International News," "Home Sweet Home," a better homes film; Larry Cannell of the ocean.

From the opening subtitle to the final fadeout, Buster Keaton's new picture, "Sherlock, Jr.," which opened at the Richmond theatre last night for a two days engagement, is a sparkling good feature comedy. It is a sparkling comedy of humor, ably supported by a keen appreciation of life as it is lived in a small town. It is the story of a movie operator who, after taking up a $2 correspondence course to qualify as a detective, gets fame and the girl when he falls asleep as he is showing a Hollywood melodrama. Joseph M. Schenck produced the picture, which was directed by Buster Keaton. Elgin Rossley and Byron Houck were the photographers, while Fred Gabouri handled the art direction.

A brilliant cast appears in support of Buster. Kathryn McGuire is the girl, and Ward Crane plays the suave villain. Joseph Keaton, formerly a member of the "Three Keatons" vaudeville troupe and Buster's father, adds materially to the worth of the film. Other players in the cast are Horace Morgan, Jane Connelly, Edwin Connelly, Ford West, George Davis, John Patrick and Ruth Holley.

Other features on the same program include the third thrilling chapter of "Haunted Valley," featuring Ruth Roland, the famous outdoors girl; "The Chase," a screen novelty of the Alps, the picture with a thousand thrills. Coming tomorrow, Colleen Moore in "The Illustrious."

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Lester Thomas, 161 Third street, April 7.

INJURED IN FALL

HARTE COUNTRY ATTRACTIVE TO EARLY AUTOISTS

During the unsettled weather of early spring, many motorists who want to make week end trips that will not take them off the pavement will find the Bret Harte country around Grass Valley and Nevada City an attractive objective.

From the Bay district motorists can ferry across to Sausalito and use the Black Point cut-off to Napa and Cordelia or go via Alameda and Contra Costa counties using the highway to Shortway and Martinez, crossing the straits via ferry and continuing over pavement to Cordelia and Sacramento, according to the touring bureau of the California State Automobile Association.

From Sacramento there is highway via Auburn to Grass Valley and Nevada City. Good hotel accommodations are available on this route, the Automobile Association announced yesterday, and motorists who wish to continue a little further up into the old mining country will find a very fair road into Camptenville and Downieville, and perhaps a short distance beyond. However, wet weather would make some sections of this road somewhat heavy and slow.

When returning, the route may be varied by driving south from Sacramento into Stockton and returning from Stockton through Holt and across Victoria Island, using the Borden highway to Brentwood, Antioch, Pittsburg and into Oakland via the Tunnel road. The route south from Stockton to Tracy and thence through Dublin canyon into Oakland also affords excellent roadbed.

MODERN WOODMEN TO HOLD REUNION MEET

A large initiation and old members' meeting will be held on May 15, by Richmond Camp No. 1922, Modern Woodmen of America. This day is the twenty-first anniversary of the founding of the lodge and it is hoped that all the old time members of the organization will be out.

After the regular business meeting, over which Venerable Consul A. English presided, was held last night, the division of the lodge that is headed by F. Carroll, put on the evening's entertainment and afterward acted as hosts to the other members at a "feed" that proved conclusively that they were real cooks and waiters.

On Thursday evening, last, the drill team, of which H. W. McCausland is the leader, visited San Francisco to attend the Zone meeting and initiation in that city. The local team put on the work in connection with the initiatory services.

LOCAL MAN MARRIES
SAN FRANCISCO GIRL

In the presence of only relatives and friends, Miss Nell Choje of San Francisco and A. Ford of Richmond were quietly married Thursday afternoon in Martinez with Rev. T. A. Boyer officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. William Choje of the Choje News Agency of San Francisco are the parents of the bride, while the bridegroom is the son of City Assessor and Tax Collector J. O. Ford and Mrs. Ford, connected with a San Francisco accounting firm. Ford is a popular young graduate of the Richmond high school. The newlyweds will make their home in San Francisco.

A trip through the largest sugar refinery in the world will start sharp at 3:30, not meaning maybe, it is said. There will be a banquet, an entertainment and "smokes," and "nothing slow about the party."

The Shriner fez and a smile is all that is required for admission.

The cast included, Bernice McCornick as Mrs. Brown, Florence Marshall as Matilda Brown, Nellie Dixon as Aunt Debby, Corey Hollenbaugh as Miss Susan Armstrong, Ethel Bacon as Ephephie, Abbie Hanchon as Millie Weaver, Evelyn Mosey as Kittle Weaver, and Martha Gavin as Mrs. Long.

The officers of the lodge presented Mrs. Alexander with a beautiful silver cake plate in honor of her birthday. A delightful banquet was served at the close of the program by an able committee.

Pythian Sisters
Plan To Hold
Experience Meet

The last day for all the dollars to be contributed by the members of Contra Costa Temple, No. 113, Pythian Sisters, to be in, has been set at June 5. Considerable interest has been aroused by this affair, as each lady must earn the dollar she contributes and she must tell in writing how the money was earned. The experiences will be read on the evening of June 5, and it is expected that most of them will be exceedingly interesting as well as humorous.

At the meeting of Contra Costa temple, held in Pythian castle last night, the members welcomed back Mrs. Carey Sargent, who has been residing in Los Angeles for the past three years, but who now has returned to the "old home town" to make her home.

Delegates to the grand lodge to be held in Oakland from May 18 to 25 inclusive, were selected at the meeting, over which Most Excellent Chief Evelyn Miller presided. They were, Mrs. Hallie Bozell, first delegate; Mrs. Anna Evelyn Bowyer, second delegate; Mrs. Mae Donnelly, first alternate; and Mrs. Frances Michel, second alternate.

It was decided to hold a meeting of the Sewing club at the home of Mrs. John Opman at 222 Sixteenth street on the evening of Thursday, April 16 and the same evening a whist will be conducted at the home of Mrs. Robert Miller, 150 Tenth street. The latter affair is also for the benefit of the home fund.

PYTHIAN SISTERS
AT SOCIAL PARTY

In spite of the bad weather, a good number of members of Richmond temple, Pythian Sisters gathered at the home of Mrs. Mildred Augustine, 914 Bissell avenue yesterday afternoon, and spent a most enjoyable time in a social way.

The subject of re-forming the Pythian Sisters' Sewing club was discussed, but no definite action was taken in the matter. The hostess served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

BIG MAJORITY OF VACATIONS DONE BY AUTO

Vacation travel has been revolutionized in a few years by the automobile, according to the California State Automobile Association which points out that last year over 90 percent of the visitors to the national parks in California traveled by motor car.

Figures just furnished the Automobile Association's touring bureau by the United Forest Service show that last year the railroads carried eight percent of the people who visited these areas of recreation and that the people who went into the mountains on horseback or on foot numbered only a little over one percent of the total travel.

Travel statistics kept on the national forests of California show that last year 3,768,480 persons entered the forests by automobile. The railroads carried 210,851 visitors and there were 24,421 hikers. Only 21,007 people entered the national forests by all other means of travel.

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

The way to solve the Cross Word Puzzle is to fill in the white squares of the diagram with the words which agree with the accompanying definitions. The definitions are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the diagram.

Any word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" will begin at its number, shown on the diagram, and will extend all the way across to the first black space to the right of that number. That is, the word must begin in the square that contains its identifying number, and extend as far as the white squares continue uninterrupted.

Any word defined under "VERTICAL" will also begin in the white space that contains its number, but will extend downward as far as the white space remain uninterrupted.

REALTORS TO OPPOSE TAX EXEMPTIONS

Members of the Legislature are to be asked not to vote for any measure that would make any further exemptions to taxation, whether it be school property or otherwise by the Contra Costa County Board of Realtors and the Contra Costa Insurance Agents association.

This was resolved at a joint meeting held Wednesday evening at Alacosta Inn in Walnut Creek at which time A. L. Paulsen of Richmond presided.

The president was empowered to select a committee of realtors to pass on the qualifications of applicants for real estate licenses from Contra Costa county.

A new ruling by Real Estate Commissioner, Edw. T. Kaiser, compels all applicants for a Real Estate Brokers license to pass a qualification test propounded by a committee from local real estate boards.

A resolution was passed directed to the interested Senators and Assemblymen requesting that they work for the inclusion of the Victory Highway Route, from Sacramento to Oakland in the State highway system. This route is via the tunnel road, Antioch bridge and Sherman Island to Sacramento.

A majority of the Realtors announced that they were going to attend the Industrial and Own Your Own Home Conference, which is going to be held in Hotel Oakland, on April 17 and 18, under the auspices of the California Real Estate association.

Henry Johnston, president, and E. J. Burz, secretary, of Richmond had charge of the Insurance Agents meeting.

Edson D. Hale, of Martinez, gave an interesting talk on what constitutes a bonifide insurance agent. He gave four rules for determining a bonifide agent as follows:

1. The agent should be writing insurance for the public and not for himself.
2. He should understand his business and be able to explain the coverage to his customers.
3. He should maintain a central office, with suitable signs and equipment.
4. He should belong to the Association of his craft.

C. R. Ricks of Martinez, secretary of the California Association of Insurance Agents reported on the State Association's activities including legislative matters.

Karl Rieke, organizer for the National Association of Insurance Agents, who is just finishing a five months organization program in California, spoke on the work of the National Association.

Following are the names of those present:

H. A. Johnston, A. L. Paulsen, W. J. Richards, Jr., H. O. Watson, E. J. Bull, M. A. Hayes, E. J. Burz, Isaac Lester, E. P. Vaughn, Mrs. H. W. Bryant, Mrs. Clara M. Hansen, W. Pedro, O. J. Ripley and George Morrison of Richmond.
G. A. Putnam, Dr. J. E. Clark, G. C. Putnam, I. E. Ray, Laurette S. Norton and Mrs. B. Pezgan of Walnut Creek; C. A. Ricks, Edson D. Hale, C. H. Hayden and L. E. Mullen Martinez; W. P. Knott, Concord; John J. Davi, Pittsburg; W. W. Patis, Oakland; Carl W. Rieke, San Francisco.

Here's the secret of good soups, stews, gravies!

KITCHEN BOUQUET

A delightful blend of the rich juices of fresh garden vegetables. Gives the master touch of the chef to all soups, stews, gravies and sauces made at home. Used by famous chefs of leading hotels here and abroad.

Chop Suey

3 tablespoons Kitchen Bouquet; 1 pound veal steak cut in cubes; 2 cups celery, diced; 1 cup chopped Spanish onions; 1 large can mushrooms; 1 tablespoon chopped peanuts; 2 tablespoons butter; 1 teaspoon salt; 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Melt the butter in frying pan, add the veal and cook until seared, or white all over, turn in the celery and onions and cook gently until the onions and celery are tender; then add the mushrooms with their liquor and a third cup of water, together with the nuts, salt, pepper and Kitchen Bouquet. Cover and simmer for twenty minutes. Place in a mound on a chop platter, surround with boiled rice sprinkled with paprika and serve very hot.

Cream Sauce

Cook together one-fourth a cup, each, of butter and flour, and add gradually one pint of milk; let simmer ten minutes after all the liquid has been added; season with salt and pepper and add Kitchen Bouquet to taste.

Babe Ruth Better But Will Not Be In Opening Game

(By Universal Service) NEW YORK, April 10.—"Babe" Ruth is feeling tonight just about like a dollar and a quarter horsehide ball that has been smacked into the right field bleachers by one of the "Babe's" own smashing wallop.

Only worse. The "Babe" is resting easily, but he will not play in the Yankees' opener at the stadium next Tuesday. If he plays anything that day it will be the Victoria or a game of dominoes with his daughter Dorothy.

The mountain of flesh that answers to the name of George Herman Ruth is suffering at one and the same time from a touch of the "flu" indigestion, a cold, a general rundown condition, jumpy nerves and a bump on the head. Outside of that the doctors aren't worrying about him.

His trip up from Asheville, N. C. where he was taken sick Tuesday, and his collapse in the train as it neared the Pennsylvania station, were rather hard on a sick man. But rest is making up for it, his physician, Dr. Edward King says. Thursday night's sleep, which was very restful, turned the tide.

Ruth is not seeing visitors—with four exceptions. The first two, of course, are Mrs. Helen Ruth and little Dorothy. The other two yesterday couldn't possibly be turned away, because they had spent their only fifty cents on a bunch of flowers for the big small boy's idol and Leonard Castore, 10 and Peter Grafto, 23, both of No. 23 Jones street, got to Ruth with their touching tribute.

"Cat naps" throughout the day added to restoring the famous swatter's condition. The roaring in his head, about which he complained throughout most of the trip up from the South, has left him but otherwise the Bambino explains that he still feels "rotten."

Neptune Beach Program Event Aimed Sunday

The elaborate program of entertainment scheduled for opening day, last Sunday at Greater Neptune Beach, Alameda, will be held tomorrow it is announced by the directors of the resort. King Neptune (himself) and his daughters will appear on the newly added beach acreage and inspect the new pool 150x600 feet in size built for the 1925 season. Outdoor vaudeville shows, band concert, dancing and a display of fireworks in the evening complete the shore program.

"Bill" LaRue, playing the part of King Neptune, will break a bottle of pre-Volstead wine on the rim of the new "Undersea Playground." His court of mermaids will then be the first to enter the "spicy" water. It is announced. The aquatic king and his court will also be given the key to "Neptune-by-the-Sea," a village of vacation cottages just completed on the new beach. The little bungalows will be rented furnished, ready for housekeeping to week-end or Summer visitors at the beach.

In an Oakland Oct. 19, 1915, hundreds of people heard the testimony of Mr. D. Eden and of Mr. J. Duarte of San Leandro, both of whom had been called as witnesses against the Fong Wan in the latest campaign of the Medical Board.

They claim that no other treatment has repeatedly been vindicated in court and proved to be an effective as the Fong Wan Herbs.

This testimony was given in the first trial of Fong Wan in the latest campaign of the Medical Board against the Chinese Herbalists about the Bay.

CHAMBER BACKS YELLOW CABS SERVICE HERE

Advent of the Yellow Cab service in Richmond, inaugurated yesterday, is a direct result of efforts made by the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, according to statement issued yesterday by the chamber. Following a survey of local transportation conditions, made by the chamber, the Yellow Cab Manufacturing company of Chicago was urged to establish the service here.

The chamber yesterday made public the following letter:

Mr. Walter Krantz,
Richmond Yellow Cab Co.
Dear Mr. Krantz: We congratulate you on your enterprise in giving Richmond a Yellow Cab service. The sight of the cabs on the streets

EXPLOSION IN POOL ROOM

Jack Linstrom, one of the proprietors of the Linstrom and Heinemann billiard parlor at 216 Sixth street, narrowly escaped injury yesterday morning when a gas explosion blew the bottom out of the gas range and broke the plate glass window in the establishment. Linstrom was standing directly in front of the range when the explosion came from a leaking pipe exploded when he attempted to light the stove. He escaped unhurt.

tends a metropolitan air to the city, which nothing else could so easily do.

There is a distinct need for the service you offer, which is quick and cheap transportation to every part of the city. We are particularly pleased that you have set your rate schedule low enough to attract business, and we feel sure the public will show its appreciation by giving you liberal patronage.

Sincerely yours,

REGISTER IS CLOSED HERE FOR ELECTION

City Clerk A. C. Paris stated yesterday that the last return he had on the number of registered voters was 7841, an increase of 921 over the number that registered for the recall election last September, at which time 6923 were registered. Yesterday was the last day to register for the general municipal election, but the total of all registrants will not be ascertained until Monday.

Increase in population is given as a partial reason for the gain, but it was mainly due to the fact that the general election last November stimulated registration to a greater extent than in ordinary cases.

The precincts which have become overcrowded will have to be rearranged next year, according to Paris, who declares that new precincts will have to be created. There are 35 at present, and of this number three have more than 300 voters each. The normal number is 250 to a precinct. Number 22, the largest in the city, takes in the territory from Barrett to Clinton, Ninth street to the Southern Pacific tracks, but had voters in it.

April 16, next Wednesday, is the last day for filing petitions for nomination to the city council. There are five candidates in the race thus far. They are Mrs. J. H. Chandler (incumbent), W. W. Scott (incumbent), W. L. Lane (incumbent), C. E. Bevis and John L. Collins.

George E. Knight and Earl Calfee have taken out the papers, but they have not filed the petitions as yet. Calfee said he took out the papers for a friend who wanted them for another friend, and consequently he did not know who they were intended for.

U. C. DANCERS PRACTICE FOR ANNUAL EVENT

Co-ed dancers now practice daily on the lawn of Faculty Glade on the University of California campus for the annual Parthenia to be presented April 15 and 16. The 1925 Parthenia, written by Nellie Hatchell and managed by Mildred Anton, is destined to be the most colorful and artistic creation of any of former years.

Dorothy Daminakes, dashing campus dancer of former Parthenias, portrays the Dragon Fly in this year's masque, and is also teaching the co-eds all the intricate dance steps in her role as dancing director. Lullette Spencer, also noted for her portrayal of the Naustiche dancer in the 1924 masque, plays the lead this year as Pan, the lover. Theodora Appia, a famous musician and exponent of eurythmics, is coaching the annual event.

The title, "Threads of the Loom" derived its name from the fact that a pattern is woven on a huge loom suspended between two oaks in the glade. The various dancers weave the "pattern of life" as they enter the glade. The Maiden, played by Virginia Russ, is the objective of all the conflicting emotions of life. They all in turn selfishly strive for her favor, Love, Pleasure, Revelry, Lust, and finally Death, clothed in the spectacular robes of the Dragon Fly.

The motif for this year's Parthenia is Grecian and Oriental, with red-violet, blue-green, and yellow-orange forming the color scheme. Assisting the executive committee for this event are Mildred Bell, Ieda Ogborn, Ina Mitchell, and Eleanor Burke.

Los Angeles—Approximately $100,000,000 to be spent for street improvements and $100,000,000 for building construction during present year.

LOCAL ROTARY CLUB IS TOLD REGION WORK

The method of learning by the other fellow's experience and mistakes is the simplest meaning of Regional planning, according to Fred Dohrman, of San Francisco, president of the Regional Planning association, and A. A. Brown, engineer of the California and Hawaiian Sugar refineries, who addressed the Rotarians Friday.

That regional planning was no new idea was pointed out by Dohrman as the ruins of the ancient world contained any number of incidents that indicated it was practiced centuries ago. The need of such an organization was first felt in this locality at the Commonwealth club of San Francisco, and the club has appointed a committee that is now working on the preliminary plans for the organization of the nine San Francisco Bay regions into an association, with San Francisco as the hub of the section which lies within an area of 50 miles from that city. Endorsement by public opinion will be the key note of the success of the club, according to Dohrman.

The regional problems of this district were discussed by Brown, and he stated that within a few years we may be facing problems that will be of such large scope as to make it impossible for us to meet them. The best decisions in these matters is necessary and these can be best brought about by a regional planning organization.

The program was arranged by Al Hill, who was chairman of the day, and he expressed his appreciation to John Kennedy, secretary of the association, who had arranged for the speakers.

A short address on the Easter season and its meaning to the world, was delivered by Rev. L. McAfee of Berkeley. A five minute talk was given by T. H. Delap, in which he defined his vocation as being one of interpreter of rules of society, applied to individuals living under these rules.

Fred B. LaMoine was named by Aubrey Wilson, president, as chairman of the committee composed of past presidents, who will be in charge of the inauguration of the new officers of the club at the first meeting in May.

San Francisco—January and February building permits totaled $220,000, doubling record for corresponding period in 1924.
